

LaunchCode: Program Instructor

LaunchCode

LaunchCode is a non-profit solving the tech talent gap and paving new pathways to economic opportunity through education, apprenticeships, training and job placement in technology. We're seeking a hyper-motivated program instructor to teach and build curriculum for specialized training programs.

Are you passionate about sharing your coding skills with others? Have programming chops and communication skills? Does the thought of preparing people for employment sing to your soul? Then you, my friend, should work with us.

This is a full time, permanent position based at the LaunchCode HQ in St. Louis, MO. It requires regular travel, for up to 75% of work.

The Education Program Instructor Role Description

This role will be primarily responsible for teaching and contributing to a specialized course covering a variety of topics, including testing, web development, DevOps, and GIS programming. These courses regularly run in both St. Louis and Virginia, and the role will involve regular travel.

The Education Team at LaunchCode emphasizes strong teamwork, a can-do attitude, a strong desire to learn, and a passion for helping people learn and grow. You don't need any formal education background; we hire developers with solid core skills and the desire to grow their own skill set and contribute to team and organizational goals.

Responsibilities

- Delivery of pre-made curriculum
- Contribute to the creation and maintenance of curriculum
- Working with individual students to ensure optimal learning
- Tracking and reporting on student progress
- Coordinating and scheduling outside training vendors

Qualifications

- 2+ years web development experience (any language or framework)
- Familiarity with general principles of DevOps
- Familiarity with testing and test-driven development
- Passion for mentoring and working with students
- Strong communication skills
- A team-oriented mindset
- Ability to be flexible and take on mission-critical projects

Position Type

Full-time — 40 hours per week

To Apply

Apply online by filling out the form above. No phone calls, please. References should be available upon request. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until the position is filled. We highly recommend applying as early as possible for the best chance of moving forward. The employment eligibility of all new hires will be verified using E-Verify.

We Heart Diversity

LaunchCode supports and fosters leadership from underrepresented communities. We strongly encourage folks from immigrant communities and communities of color, as well as those who identify as women, LGBTQ or under-resourced to apply.

LaunchCode is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer. Program and employment policies of LaunchCode are nondiscriminatory in regard to race, color, gender, religion, age, national origin, disability, veteran status or sexual orientation.
